

Position Title: New England Leadership and Development Fellow
Reports To: New England Regional Director
Start Date: Sep. 1
End Date: Dec. 15
Location: Cambridge, MA
Hours per week: 10/15
Compensation: Hourly wage

Position

J Street New England is seeking a Leadership and Development Fellow to help plan and execute projects and events with the New England regional team. This is an ideal part-time position for applicants who want to gain knowledge about nonprofit advocacy and political fundraising at a fast-paced and highly engaged advocacy organization. We request 10/15 hours/week minimum.

Responsibilities can include:

- Researching potential supporters
- Assisting with outreach to potential supporters
- Recruitment for J Street's 2019 National Conference
- Assisting with in-district advocacy efforts with Members of Congress
- Drafting communications to New England J Street supporters
- Database management
- Outreach for J Street Boston's 2018 Annual Event

Desired Skills and Characteristics: The ideal candidate will be a detail-oriented, creative problem-solver and self-starter. The candidate must be comfortable working with multiple staff in a fast-paced, campaign-style atmosphere, and will possess the following characteristics:

- Excellent written and verbal communication skills;
- Excellent organizational skills and detail oriented;
- Ability to prioritize, multitask, and manage a variety of projects and tasks;
- Proficiency in Microsoft suite experience with database management and Excel a plus;
- Eager to work collaboratively in a fast-paced and team-oriented environment;
- A strong commitment to J Street's pro-Israel/pro-peace mission.

Organization

J Street is the political home for pro-Israel, pro-peace Americans fighting for the future of Israel as the democratic homeland of the Jewish people. We believe that Israel's Jewish and democratic character depend on a two-state solution, resulting in a Palestinian state living alongside Israel in peace and security.

Rooted in our commitment to Jewish and democratic values, J Street is redefining what it means to be pro-Israel in America. We are changing the U.S. political dynamics around Israel by mobilizing broad support for a two-state solution because it's in Israel's and America's interest. And we are expanding support for Israel by affirming — along with many Israelis — that being pro-Israel doesn't require supporting every policy of its government.

J Street supports diplomatic solutions over military ones, including in Iran; multilateral over unilateral approaches to conflict resolution; and dialogue over confrontation with a wide range of countries and actors when conflicts do arise. For more on our policy positions, visit: www.jstreet.org/issues.

J Street advocates forcefully in the policy process, in Congress, in the media, and in the Jewish community to make sure public officials and community leaders clearly see the depth and breadth of support for our views on Middle East policy among voters and supporters in their states and districts. We seek to complement the work of existing organizations and individuals that share our agenda. In our lobbying and advocacy efforts, we enlist individual supporters of other efforts as partners.

The J Street family of organizations includes J Street – a 501(c)(4) nonprofit which is responsible for lobbying and advocacy; JStreetPAC – a federal political action committee that endorses and raises money for federal candidates who support active American leadership to bring peace and security to Israel and the Middle East; and the J Street Education Fund – a 501(c)(3) that aims to educate communities about the need for a twostate solution to the IsraeliPalestinian conflict and promote open, dynamic and spirited conversation about how to best advance the interests and future of a democratic, Jewish Israel. J Street Local, J Street's national field program and J Street U, J Street's campus movement are programs of the J Street Education Fund.

To apply:

Please send a resume and cover letter to intern@jstreet.org with "NE Fall Fellow" in the subject line.

J Street is an equal opportunity employer